"SOAK 'EM CLUB" STUNNED BY GRAND JURY'S ACTION

M. MARCUS ESTABROOK.
Snapshot of the celebrated author of the "Soak 'Em" speech at the dealers' banquet. He is now under indictment for conspiracy.

ICE TRUST INDICTMENT

What Indicted Ice Dealers Say

Levis C. White of Worcester, president of the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association, said he was not surprised by the indictment. "I am not surprised," he said, "because I have known the ice business for many years and I know the law. I believe also that the ice dealers' association has done nothing criminal."

Charles W. Hathorn, secretary of the association, said that he was not surprised by the indictment. "I have known the ice business for many years and I know the law. I believe also that the ice dealers' association has done nothing criminal."

John G. Porter of Marlborough said that he was not surprised by the indictment. "I have known the ice business for many years and I know the law. I believe also that the ice dealers' association has done nothing criminal."

QUINCY FINDS MEN TO RUN AGAINST MORAN

WHITNEY AND SULLIVAN THE TICKET HE PROPOSES TO ASK DEMOCRATS TO SUPPORT.

At last the State street democracy has found its hand in the open and has framed the following State ticket:

FOR GOVERNOR—HENRY M. WHITNEY of Cohasset, banker and dealer in cognac and legation.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—JOHN A. SULLIVAN of Boston, vice president of the firm of Clegg & Co. (Ind.) dealer in Democratic politics, says the regular Democracy of Massachusetts must swallow this year. Quincy says this ticket will appeal to the "better element" and be strong with labor.

"Bought Like Fish at Wharf."

Thomas W. Lawson has repeatedly and emphatically charged Whitney with being a legislative pirate and political huckster, and in his story of the gas scandal of 1906, when Whitney pocketed his Massachusetts pipe bill through the Legislature, Lawson declared that members of the Legislature were bought "like fish at the wharves."

The Legislature of 1909 reacted with mandal and the man that held the center of the stage was Whitney. The man who was Henry M. Whitney.

Whitney has assumed the attitude of being impressed into this year's fight for the Democratic nomination, but as a matter of fact, he is again being going about the name of Whitney.

Where Grand Jury Indictment Bomb Hits

On Normal School cement "graft" charges:
The George W. Carr Company, indicted on eight counts charging it with violating the building laws in misuse of material, Superintendent John J. McCallister of the Carr Company; Roger Tansey, charge of concrete mixer; Nicola Dent, laborer, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city.

"Conspiracy to increase price of ice":
CORPORATIONS.
Boston Ice Company.
Independent Ice Company.
Union Ice Company.
Superintendent John J. McCallister of the Carr Company; Roger Tansey, charge of concrete mixer; Nicola Dent, laborer, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city.

On Chelsea aldermanic "graft" charges:
Alderman Thomas E. Ruggles, charged with receiving a bribe.
Alderman David White, charged with soliciting a bribe.
Secretary Benjamin P. Nichols of Republican City Committee of Chelsea, charged with attempting to bribe Alderman Clarence W. Warren.

CHARLES W. HALLSTROM, Boston, secretary of Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association.
LEVIS C. WHITE, president of Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association.
F. H. ATWOOD, Wakefield.
J. D. PORTER, Marlborough.
SILAS BOYES, Salem.
L. A. HOLT, Lawrence.
M. S. COOLIDGE, Lynn.
E. A. DAVENPORT, Somerville.
J. M. GILL, Springfield.
J. Q. BENNETT, Cambridge.
J. E. KIMBALL, North Cambridge.
M. MARCUS ESTABROOK, president Highland Co-operative Ice Company.
W. H. BARNEY, Hopedale.
R. W. HOPKINS, Boston.
J. W. PERRIS, Cambridge.
FRANK W. HOMANS, Gloucester.

CHARLES A. DAVIS, not present in New Hampshire.

The grand jury was very small. The names of the indicted are as follows:

W. H. Barney, Hopedale Manager for Brothers of Acting Governor, Said to Be Prostrated at His Home—President of Association Weeps.

It came as a general surprise to the public to-day that the ice business at Hopedale, in connection with which W. H. Barney was indicted as agent, together with sixteen other members of the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association, is owned by the Draper family, one of which is Lieutenant Governor Eben S. Draper, who is now the acting Governor of the Commonwealth.

Not only do the members of the Draper family own the ice business of Hopedale, but they own the coal business and the wood business and much other property there. Members of the family seen refused to comment on the action of the Grand Jury.

ICE MAGNATE PROSTRATED.
The ice plant supplies the village of Hopedale and many Millisford residents. When Mr. Barney reached his home from Boston after his arraignment in court, where he was charged with conspiracy in raising the price of ice, he was compelled to go to bed at once. It was said he had suffered from a chill in Boston and that he had had another after reaching home. A physician was called to attend him.

Brothers of the Lieutenant Governor who are interested in the ice business, are George A. Draper and William P. Draper.

The ice business indicted may be first each $10,000, or they may be sentenced to three years in prison. They were indicted under the common law, as were those of Philadelphia. The sentence is largely in the discretion of the court.

With tears streaming from his eyes, Levis C. White, president of the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association, who represents the indicted for conspiracy in raising the price of ice, wept bitterly at the verdict of the grand jury.

There was nothing of the pungent spirit of the ordinary ice huckster in W. H. Barney when he was indicted. When he was indicted, he was indicted as a huckster. He was indicted as a huckster. He was indicted as a huckster.

DECLARES HE IS HONEST.
"I am an honest man. I am trying to make an honest living. Do you want to take the bread and butter out of my mouth?"

A general White would not discuss the indictment. He refused to say how he and the other members of the association would attempt to meet it.

One of the members of the association, however, declared that he would fight the indictment. He said that he would fight the indictment. He said that he would fight the indictment.

ICE MEN GIVE $1,000 BOND EACH.
Hopedale, Pa., from Attorney General, appeared as counsel for the bonds. Their bail was fixed at $1,000 each. This continued on Page 8, Column 2.

FACTORY FIRE CAUSES SCARE

A lively blaze broke out in the New England Beer Company's shop at No. 5 Pitt street, shortly after 9 o'clock to-day, creating a panic among the fifty odd women and girls employed there.

The building is on the corner of Green and Pitt streets. The front part is occupied by the Salvation Army. A number of women were in the building at the time and they made their escape by means of the fire escape.

No one was hurt but for a time it looked as though some of the girls in the rear part of the building and the smoke rising out in heavy columns.

It is thought that the fire was caused by a match or a cigarette. The fire was extinguished by the fire department.

1 DEAD, 1 HURT BY A DYNAMO

One man was killed and another was seriously injured, possibly fatally, hurt by an electric shock in the dynamo room of the Highland Co-operative Ice Company, Cambridge, to-day.

There was a report and a flash and then a man was killed and another was seriously injured. The man who was killed was Richard Harris, forty-two years of age, of Haverhill, Mass. He was not yet even married.

Wonderland
James E. Hardy, known as the "Hero of Montenegro" and Niagara, from his thrilling stunts hanging on a high rope above the falls, is the most sensational of the new artists at Wonderland this week. Last night Hardy did his hazardous act upon a high wire stretched between two tall poles in the centre of the Wonderland plaza. He will appear twice daily. Also on the boards this week is the auto dive or "falling man" act by Mlle. Leubet. Holman and his two brothers, acrobatic comedians; the parade of the nations.

It is a "laughing bill" at Keith's this time. "The new dancing craze," says the headline, "is the 'laughing' craze."

Doing sensational stunts just because he likes it, risking his life daily rather than be idle and enjoy his millions, and furnishing excitement for packed houses—this is what the Millionaire Detective does. The evening's entertainment at the Grand Opera House—a return engagement, by the way, and the story of frenzied finance, love, intrigue and comedy—will be a most successful one. He plays three roles, and they keep him busy.

Barbara Douglas plays the big role of Mrs. Sandwick and scores a hit and the entire company is delighted for the success of her action in an intense naturalness are essential. Matinees will be given to-day, Thursday and Saturday.

Bowdoin Square Theatre
 "Hazel Kirke," one of the pleasantest of domestic plays, a success in every land where English is spoken, was again received with marked favor at the Bowdoin Square Theatre yesterday, with a full and enthusiastic audience. Excellent support is given by Miss Gertrude Hines as Delley Dutton, Miss Florence Hale as Emily Cartright, Miss Annie Marshall as Mary Kirke, and Miss Alice Thornton as Clara. Edwin Denison was never better in any role than he is as Dunstan Kirke. The play is well acted, and the scenes are effectively and prettily put on. The drama is for eye work, with a daily lesson in the art of acting. The play, "Her Marriage Vow," will be the offering.

FAR "WIDOW'S" LOVE LETTERS WILL THOUSANDS FROM DIPES

"Helen Hamilton's" Burning Words
Brought Money to Matrimonial Syndicate.

Victim No. 3 Shows Up as Police Start Search for the Missing Woman.

By Boston American Special Wire.
NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Developments today in affairs of the "matrimonial syndicate" show how men in all parts of the country were duped by the "love letters" of "Mrs. Helen Hamilton," who, with an other woman in the syndicate, are believed to have penned the burning intimacies of affection that led their victims to part with cash and valuables.

Mrs. Hamilton, who is Mrs. George T. Verrault, has been talking from her West Side home since Saturday. Warrants are out for her arrest. Her counsel closed yesterday and again today that she would appear before the authorities, but her lawyers' officers are now seeking greater New York in an endeavor to get her.

Letters Breathed Love.
Pointing out some of the letters from "Mrs. Hamilton" to "Mr. Hamilton," one of the alleged victims in Philadelphia and the man who "wrote out the first warrant against her, which the BOSTON AMERICAN is enabled to publish this afternoon, for the first time.

My Dear Mr. Hamilton: Sunday.
I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter and photos, both of which have been sent me. I am glad to hear that you are well and happy. I am glad to hear that you are well and happy. I am glad to hear that you are well and happy.

Love Better Than Millions.
My Dearest Friend Your letter which came to hand yesterday morning made me extremely happy, and you have been in my thoughts constantly since you left. I shall always believe strongly in love, and I am sure that you will find it possible that I should be so improved with a perfect stranger, and I can only quote the old adage.

My Dear Mr. Hamilton: Sunday.
I feel sure that we could be happy indeed, for something seems to tell me that you are just what I need. I am glad to hear that you are well and happy. I am glad to hear that you are well and happy. I am glad to hear that you are well and happy.

NEW PHOTO OF MRS. HAMILTON-VERVAULT AND EXTRACTS FROM HER LOVE LETTERS

The real name is Mrs. George T. Verrault. Now Service agents are watching for her handsome home, No. 323 West Eighty-second street, New York, from which she is alleged to have carried on a matrimonial swindle by means of love letters.

A new complaint was lodged against the woman, when Lee Kinsler, prominently connected with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, swore out a warrant for "Mrs. Hamilton's" arrest, alleging that she had been duped out of some $20,000 by a "love letter" which she had written to him.

Some of the money that Kinsler gave to "Mrs. Hamilton" was used to pay for a "love letter" which she had written to him. The letter was a "love letter" which she had written to him. The letter was a "love letter" which she had written to him.

Two Dead—Fifty Thousand Robbed.
BUT WE MUST AVOID PATERNALISM AND KEEP UP RESPECTABLE BANKING

Just follow up, day by day, this story of shameful robbery and suffering in connection with the looting of the Chicago Milwaukee Avenue State Bank and think a little more about the question of money, and of postal savings banks, which we have occasionally discussed together in this column.

If you talk about a postoffice savings bank, you are told that that would be paternalism, "THE GOVERNMENT MUSTN'T GO INTO BANKING AND INTERFERE WITH GOOD, HONEST BANKERS"—so say the BANKERS.

Which is worse, "paternalism," or fifty thousand poor workers robbed of their savings? If it WERE paternalism for our government to provide postal savings banks, as other governments do, wouldn't that paternalism be better than this wholesale, shameful robbery?

Do you realize what the government DOES for these banks when you see what the banks do for the people that trust them?

Do you know that the man who starts a bank simply buys government bonds? THE GOVERNMENT PAYS HIM INTEREST ON THOSE BONDS ALL THE TIME, BUT THERE IS NO PATERNALISM ABOUT THAT.

Then, having deposited those bonds paying HIM interest, he is allowed to issue money on his own account, and lend it to the people for just as high a rate as he can squeeze out of them.

In other words, he invests his money in government bonds. The nation, which means the people, pays him interest on those bonds. Then he turns around and issues his bank money, and squeezes the very last cent out of the very people that are paying him interest on his government bonds, and permitting him to run the bank.

And, not satisfied with that, every once in a while a banker gets into that "respectable" Wall street gambling dive and cheats his depositors out of their savings, shamelessly betraying their confidence.

Could anything be more preposterous than the arguments against safe banking facilities offered to the people by the government?

Is it not the absolute duty of the people to supply their own postal savings banks, THAT CANNOT POSSIBLY FAIL?
They do this in England and elsewhere.

In New Zealand, as we have already told you, the people lend their own money to farmers at a very low rate of interest. THEY NEVER LOSE ANYTHING; and they develop the country through credit, defending the farmers against money sharks.

Must this nation go on forever exploited by a class of financial vultures ROBBING ON A SMALL SCALE THROUGH USURY ALL OF THE TIME and stealing everything occasionally?

Readers, think these matters over for yourselves. Don't listen to the talk of paternalism. Tell such talkers that you believe in common sense, in protection for the savings of the worker, and that you do not believe in a system that puts the public at the mercy of banks, and exposes them to the dishonesty of men who live in an atmosphere of speculation.

Readers, learn, first of all, TO THINK INDEPENDENTLY. Then make up your minds TO VOTE INDEPENDENTLY. Don't be called a tame Democrat; don't be called a tame Republican.

Be known to the world AS AN INDEPENDENT THINKING MAN.
And vote as you think, INDEPENDENTLY.
Vote against extortion, against monopoly, against bank robberies and the other thieves' tricks in our beautiful "system."

THEY GO BACK TO THE OLD HOME TO SPEND THEIR VACATION

She Writes Enthusiastically of the Good Work Done by the National Children's Home Society

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

IF a Boston woman were to meet a stranger and learn from conversation that she had been reared in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, the Bostonian would instantly feel a secret superiority of superiority. If asked to explain this feeling, she would probably say that while the Dakota woman was as good as a Bostonian, she could not, in the nature of things, have enjoyed the same advantages of culture. That her mind must lack the friction with the great arts and great artists and great events which are a part of a big city.

But meantime something is being done in Sioux Falls, which is greater in its magnitude than anything of its kind done in Boston. Greater from the fact of its influence upon the future of the nation.

HELP US DEPOPULATE THE PENITENTIARIES

By surrounding the dependent children of the nation (the material from which criminals are made) with pure moral influences.

subject was one which has been treated over and over in this column. Surely Mr. Carnegie ought to realize how much more useful is the work of such an organization, for making good citizens, than the establishment of so many libraries. Ninety-five per cent. of the children taken by this society turn out well.

At Bronx Falls is established the National Children's Home Society, and the work done by this society is greater than that of all the churches in all the United States. It is practical evangelism by this society turn out well and the work are more marvellous than any tales of fiction.

Read what one of the chief workers has to say about the result of their effort:

Does it pay? Put your ear to the "house" and you will hear the answer. Lat Superintendent O. A. Brown, of Kansas, has the line; his wife, Mrs. O. A. Brown, is a woman of no reputation. She had a little five-year-old girl at one of the "houses" in Kansas City. The child was turned over to public authority and placed in the county jail. The mother was arrested and so loaded that nothing but a life of ignominy, impurity and crime was before her.

There is not a city in the land having a population of 5,000 or more but has its quota of crime. The police and the police officers are the peace and welfare of the public, as well as a heavy burden on the city. The police officer is the largest police force needed to keep them under control. In the largest cities the number of police officers is the largest. The police department of Chicago reported over 17,000 arrests of the city's population. The police department of Chicago reported over 17,000 arrests of the city's population. The police department of Chicago reported over 17,000 arrests of the city's population.

and our girl improved so fast that within a year she was practicing her French. The progress was continued until now she is a young lady eighteen years of age, kind, intelligent and more beautiful in character, a sunshine and daily benediction to her mother and father, a blessing to all her companions."

Would you know more of this? Write to the Honorable Secretary, St. Louis, Mo. St. Louis Children's Hospital, St. Louis Falls, 3.
